

House Resolution No. 1331

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens, especially its educators; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Jane Hagg, of Dearborn, Missouri, who stepped down from her post as an educator in the North Platte R-I School District in May 2006, after twenty-nine years of loyal and dedicated service to her profession and to the young people of this state; and

Whereas, Jane Hagg served twenty-nine years as a third-grade teacher at North Platte Elementary School; and

Whereas, always active in her community and in profession, Jane Hagg is the former CTA President, District MAP Leader, North Platte Foundation Secretary, TAC Committee Representative, and the Curriculum Committee; and

Whereas, Jane Hagg is a member of Beta Sigma Phi and the treasurer, elder, and organist for the Dearborn Christian Church; and

Whereas, the beloved daughter of Forrest and Georgia Cassity and treasured sister of Bob Cassity, Jane Hagg has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family which includes her husband, Jerry Hagg, and her children, John Hagg and Joe Hagg:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere congratulations to Jane Hagg on the happy occasion of her well-deserved retirement from the teaching profession, with our best wishes for a happy and prosperous future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jane Hagg.
